

PRESS RELEASE

ONE OPEN POSITION ON THE FAYETTE COUNTY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

The Fayette County Development Authority is a volunteer body comprised of nine members. Five members are appointed to at-large positions, for four-year terms, by the Fayette County Board of Commissioners. Three members are appointed by the City of Fayetteville, the City of Peachtree City, and the Town of Tyrone, respectively. The remaining position is a member of the Peachtree City Airport Authority.

Fayette County's Development Authority sets policy, determines annual goals, and serves as a liaison between the business community and local government. This board utilizes individual talents and experiences in building consensus in an effort to facilitate an improved business climate, diversified economic base, and a steady economy that results in benefits for every citizen, business owner, and government in Fayette County.

The Fayette County Development Authority typically meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 4:00 p.m. at the Historic County Courthouse, which located in the center of Fayetteville.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners would like to notify interested Fayette County citizens that one position on the Fayette County Development Authority will be available to be filled with a term beginning April 10, 2016 and expiring April 9, 2020.

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners will be accepting applications with resumes for this open position.
